AAU STUDENT

PROFILE

I am a MERN Stack Developer with expertise in a diverse range of programming languages and tools. I ensure seamless integration from backend to frontend. My excellent communication skills are well-known, facilitating effective team collaboration and project success. I am eager to apply my systematic and detail-oriented approach to new challenges. With hands-on experience gained from internships at Moneta Technology Solutions and Addis Ababa University's Digital Library, I bring practical knowledge to the table. As an avid reader and tech enthusiast, I am constantly exploring new advancements in programming, eager to contribute to and grow with your team.
